ARTICLE 3
 PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES AND DEVELOPMENT

- A. Librarians are required to devote their time and energies to service on behalf of the University. Certain commitments established by the University will involve specific schedules and obligations that shall be met by the librarian. There shall be reasonable flexibility and reasonable individual discretion for librarians in the use of University time so that they may function as academic appointees of the University of California. Choice of other activities such as study, writing, research, public service, and requests to attend workshops, institutes, and conferences, as well as the choice of professional organizations in which to be active, are left to the discretion of the individual librarian. Responses to requests for funds or provision of leave must be communicated in writing. Decisions regarding the 1) allocation of University funds to librarians for study, writing, research, public service and other professional development activities and 2) the ~~provision of leave to attend professional meetings, conferences, seminars and/or workshops~~ are not grievable or arbitrable. if denied, the reason(s) for the denial The decisions shall not be arbitrary, capricious, or unreasonable.
- B. The University shall provide funding and opportunities for research and other professional development activities. Other professional development activities include creative activities, professional meetings, conferences, seminars, and workshops. Such funding and opportunities shall be allocated and distributed on a competitive basis at the campus level in accordance with procedures that are established at each campus the established procedures. The mix of funding between research and other professional development activities may fluctuate from year to year according to individual campus needs.
- C. Grant proposals other than those supported by funds described in Section D. and E. of this Article which designate a librarian as Principal Investigator are subject to approval at the sole discretion of the University, in accordance with Contracts and Grants Policy.
- D. ~~The University of California shall allocate $250,950 for 2005 and $260,056 for 2006 per year in various campus amounts for members of the unit to use for research, creative activities, professional meetings, conferences, seminars, and workshops. These funds shall be a minimum amount and shall not preclude the allocation of additional funds at the discretion of the University. Such additional funds shall be distributed through the same procedures as the funds agreed to in this paragraph. In accordance with procedures established by the University, the following amounts will be allocated for members of the unit to use for research, creative activities, professional meetings, conferences, seminars and workshops.~~

*My Chair
 v. UAF*
