

ARTICLE 2. Duration

This Memorandum of Understanding shall become effective on October 1, 2008 and shall remain in effect until September 30, 2011. This Agreement shall automatically renew itself unless either of the parties requests in writing that negotiations for a successor Agreement commence. Notification of a request to commence negotiations for a successor Agreement shall be submitted by either party by July 31, 2011 or sixty (60) days prior to the expiration of this Agreement, whichever is earlier. While negotiations for a successor Agreement are continuing, this Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

Limited Negotiations

If a law is enacted that affects the terms and conditions found in the contract, the University may choose to open the article(s) affected by the new law.