

ARTICLE 21. Unit Work

Supervisors and other non unit employees shall not normally perform the work of unit employees. However, Management reserves the right to assign supervisors or other non-unit employees to perform unit work to meet the operational needs of the University.